Assembly

Jimmie Lee Jackson was born in Perry County, Alabama. He confessed Christ at an early age and joined the St. James Baptist Church. Later, he became a Deacon of this church and served in this position until his death.

He attended schools of Perry County and was graduated from Lincoln High School. He was a member of Goshen Masonic Lodge No. 132-A.

Mr. Jackson was a dedicated worker in the struggle for freedom and justice.

He died in Selma, Alabama, February 26, 1965 at the age of twenty-six. He leaves to mourn his passing, a mother, Mrs. Viola Jackson, a grandmother, grandfather, one sister, and a host of relatives and friends.

There is a place of quiet rest, Near to the heart of God,
A place where sin cannot molest, Near to the heart of God.

There is a place of comfort sweet, Near to the heart of God,
A place where we our Saviour meet, Near to the heart of God.

There is a place of full release, Near to the heart of God,
A place where all is joy and peace, Near to the heart of God.
